CALL FOR PAPERS

The 20th International Joint Symposium on Artificial Intelligence and Natural Language Processing (iSAI-NLP 2025) is co-organized by AIAT, and College of Computing, PSU Phuket Campus, to be during November 12-14, 2025 in Phuket, Thailand. This iSAI-NLP 2025 conference encourages knowledge-sharing and technological advancement among AI and NLP researchers worldwide. Encompassing various subjects, including machine learning, data analytics, robotics, IoT, embedded systems, signal and image processing, speech processing, smart technology, and cybersecurity. Researchers and experts in these areas are invited to submit their papers and present their work at iSAI-NLP 2025. The in-person or virtual event in beautiful Phuket offers an excellent setting for networking, strengthening partnerships, and engaging in meaningful dialogue. We eagerly anticipate your participation at iSAI-NLP 2025, where we will gather to drive forward innovation in intelligent technologies for the advancement of society.
